Jose Gaspar

Mob: 044 7645 491
Email josephgaspar725@gmail.com

Professional Training

2021 Currently enrolled on Bootcamp of the University of Sydney at Web Developer course which includes HTML, CSS, Java and Node.

2012 to 2013 TAFE ICA11 Certificate Information and Communication Technology Training Package and ICA40411 Certificate IV in information Technology Networking.

2013 Certificate of Verifying Non-Automatic Weighing Instruments Australia National Measurement Institute.

2004/2003/2002 - Barcelona S.L one of the most important European representatives of known brands such as Fujitsu, Samsung and Sam4s. A five day professional training course, in updating software, programming and repair of cash registers, for three consecutive years.

1992 - Yokohama - A fifteen day professional training course at Towa Corporation in cash registers, programming and software development, with the manufactures Towa.

1990/1992 - Rimondi, SL - Professional training course in the technical support of electronic equipment, specifically, in cash registers and electronic scales. Most important company of Towa machines at the time. I was also responsible for the training of the dealers.

Employment History

Gasper Pos Solutions Pty Ltd as Manager Technician and responsible for installation, training and support of point of Sales Systems and Scales.

Quorion German where I was Electronic Technician and responsible for the support by assisting and providing training to others dealerships both in Europe and Australia where I worked for Quorion Australia and JEC International untill 2013.

Rimondi, Lda - Wholesale company of electronic equipment and binding, where initially I worked as a labourer for two years. During this period I received professional training in the programming and technical support. After this period I became responsible for the technical department, and had as main function giving professional training to dealers on programming point of sales software Portugal and Spain since 1990 until October 1999.

Education

University of Porto Diploma of Electronic Engineering

Skills

Data analysis
Troubleshooting
Motivation
Problem solving